About the Retreat

We invite you to join us in this program of self-development and discovery. This year's retreat is based upon Great Perfection Dzogchen wisdom teachings on the Buddha of Compassion according to the ancient lineage of Tsasum Lingpa, which encompass the tenets of loving-kindness, compassion, wisdom, and nonviolence, the basic principles upon which all Buddhist teachings are founded.

PBC's highly esteemed director and spiritual teacher, Venerable Khenpo Tsewang Dongyal Rinpoche, will bestow these teachings, along with an empowerment of the Buddha of Compassion.

Ven. Khenpo Tsewang Dongyal Rinpoche was born in eastern Tibet and enthroned as a Nyingmapa Abbot by His Holiness Dudjom Rinpoche. He traveled and studied with His Holiness Dudjom Rinpoche, as well as with his late brother, Vajrayana master and scholar Venerable Khenchen Palden Sherab Rinpoche, and his father, the hidden yogi Lama Chimed Namgyal. As a holder of the complete Nyingmapa lineage—kama, terma, and Dzogchen teachings—Khenpo Tsewang Rinpoche is fully versed in the Theravada, Mahayana, and Vajrayana schools, and is a master of Dzogchen, the most advanced tradition of meditation practice in Tibetan Buddhism.

The Khenpo Rinpoches founded Padmasambhava Buddhist Center to preserve and carry on the authentic teachings and practices of Buddha Shakyamuni and Guru Padmasambhava.
